LIFE BETTER.

Dear: Mr McGowan

In the lead up to the state election, you committed to a stronger public sector and improved services in WA.

You said you understood that the delivery of quality public services requires a skilled, well-resourced and supported public sector.

Now you're capping pay increases at a flat rate of $1000 per year, saying you'll take a machete to the public service, and after months of negotiations, you came to the table with an offer for our Union Agreement at the eleventh hour.

We want real bargaining and an offer that supports public sector workers delivering services.

We want a fair deal and job security.

We want an offer we can accept.
